I expected a whole album (or maybe more than one) as there are five tracks on the playlist and it's quite an eclectic mix. -The first track is 'Piece of Mind' and it immediately has that 90's ska lilt, but I got a feeling it's a bit more influenced by 90's rock. Maybe grunge like Soundgarden. -It goes from rock to alternative to something which has a bit of a western influence. 'Working Man' sounds very much like a cover, but it's very effective. 'Rise and Fall' which is on the second track has that grandiose feeling of the Eurodance wave, which I can't say I personally have liked. -Then there's 'Rising Sun', which is definitely one of the best songs. I think it's about death, more specifically about relationships and emotional problems. -And then there's 'Lonely Girl', which is actually an instrumental. It's one of those tracks with good quality but I can't understand a word.
